Apples Everywhere!

If there's something that we're not short of in Yeoford, it's apples. If some entrepreneur devised a co-operative gathering and sales platform we could become the next big thing in localised cottage industries, cornering the market in apple-based products across Devon. But until that happens, it's either apple cakes (which admittedly are nice, but not great for weight control) or bunging the squishy ones in the garden bin, whilst avoiding sad, drunken male wasps, who have all been made redundant as their queen now has better things to do, aww!

Anyway, September has come, and as I write this, nearly gone. The Will Blake Band hasn't quite happened yet, but I'm sure will have been a fantastic night as it always is!

This month, as I hinted earlier, it's all about the apples (and pears) as on Saturday 14th we have our (unbelievably) twelfth Yeo!Cider up at the hall. As ever, we have 16 ciders and perries, beer, hot and cold food, music and games, you know how it works! We'll also have the rugby on for anyone who wants to watch the Round 2 matches that day.

And that's that for this month, other than we say goodbye and a massive thank you to Sam, who has been distributing the YVV around Neopardy for the past few years. Good luck in your new home! That leaves a need for a volunteer to distribute over there, so please get in touch if you are able to help...

Cheers...

County Councillor Newsletter—September

August is a very quiet month as few councils at any level have any meetings. With this in mind I decided to take a 10 day holiday break. I took no iPhone nor iPad and existed in uncontactable bliss! I spent a week in Germany where I was very impressed with the public transport system, the abundance of solar panels, pothole free roads and drains that were actually clear enough to let water run down them when we had those occasionally heavy showers! How different to Devon. What are we doing wrong? How can we improve? I do have a few ideas following my visit and will discuss them with the various officers at Mid Devon and Devon Council ;I shall keep you informed. Travel they say broadens the mind and it certainly opened my eyes to what can be achieved.

There has been some progress locally on the state of the roads because there has been some patching done in Crediton and a good repair at the bottom of Station Road in Bow! I have lost count of how many e-mails, phone calls and even face-to-face talks I have had over the disgraceful condition of the road in Bow. But it is done and that is the important thing.

At the beginning of August I had a drive around some of my division with our highways officer. It was a very interesting experience pointing out the faults to him and having other faults pointed out to me. These were all logged down and we just hope that sometime there will be sufficient money to make some progress. I hope to do another “tour” in September. We did at least finalise a site for the bus shelter in Yeoford, and I have promised a contribution of £500 from my council locality fund.

It will be interesting to see what happens to the mobile library service. I attended a parish council meeting in Coldridge with Natalia, my wife, as she is the district ward member. The main topic of the meeting was the mobile library service which is very well used in the village. We were both surprised at the number of people who turned up. It seems that there has been a wide consultation and we must now wait for any ideas that come from it.

Just as August has been a quiet month I look at my diary and see that September is already filling up and so I will have more to relate to you next month. Enjoy the rest of summer.

CREDITON HAMLETS PARISH COUNCIL

At the September Parish Council meeting Cllr Chenore (MDDC) updated councillors on plans for the 2023 Festival of Light, including a carol procession by school children and the Christmas Lights competition. Councillors asked the Clerk to put this on the October agenda for discussion. Cllr Chenore also asked for the Parish Council's backing for a renewed push for a second platform at the station for the Okehampton line. All councillors agreed the Parish Council supports this initiative.

The next full Council meeting will be on Monday 2nd October at Yeoford Community Hall. If you would like to read the full minutes of the September Parish Council meeting, they are on the PC website. Please contact one of your councillors or Rachel Hodder, the Parish Clerk (clerk@creditonhamlets.org.uk or 01363 85523), if there is something you would like to have discussed at the next Council meeting. Members of public are very welcome to attend any meeting and speak during the public session. Meeting details and contact information for Councillors are on the Parish Council website (www.creditonhamlets.org.uk).

CREDITON LIBRARY REMINISCENCE PROJECT ENTERS NEW PHASE

Crediton Library's Reminiscence Project is set to enter a new phase, thanks to funding from The National Lottery Heritage Fund. The funding, made possible by money raised by National Lottery players, will allow the library to continue gathering and preserving memories of Crediton and the surrounding areas.

So far, in partnership with the Folklore Library and Archive, the library has collected and made available a number of memories of the local area. These include recollections of life during World War Two, stories of farming and growing up in the countryside, as well as living through rapidly changing times. There are memories of the first lady to receive antibiotics in Crediton, life before mobile phones and a resident's memories of getting their first colour TV.

The Reminiscence Project was set up to collect memories from a range of people with a connection to the area, whether they have been residents all their lives, they once lived in the area or have only recently moved. These memories will be recorded in audio form, capturing the voices of the people they belong to. Over the next two years, there will be a range of events to open the collection up to the community.

Crediton Library is seeking volunteers, whether to carry out interviews, transcribe them or to help with outreach events. It is also looking for interviewees, whatever their age or background - anyone with memories of Crediton and the surrounding areas is welcome! Please contact the library on 01363 772578 or email crediton.library@librariesunlimited.org.uk to find out more.

Recordings from earlier phases of the project can be found online at: www.folklorelibrary.com/crediton-library.

An appeal to all our villagers

If you, your children or anyone you know plays in the recreation ground please always check with them that they have returned the goals to the edge of the field.

This is because the Air Ambulance CANNOT LAND if the goals are in the middle of the field.

If you pass the recreation ground or see anybody playing with the goals in the centre, could you please remind them (politely) that they should be returned to the edge after use, or move them back if you find them abandoned like this.

Parish Voluntary Wildlife Warden

On Sunday last I awoke to torrential rain. I'd hoped to continue my walk from last month onwards from Binneford to Woodhead today but as yet the rain shows no sign of stopping.

We have certainly had extremes of weather this week both heat and rain. It is undeniable that the climate is changing.

So how is nature coping with our extremes of weather? The trees seemed to have coped well, the oaks and apples the best. The bees had a bad start with a cold spring but bounced back in August along with the butterflies, I've seen more Holly Blues this year than ever before.

Coming home in the middle of September I was greeted by a whirling cloud of Housemartins climbing high on a thermal, so exciting was this to see that I didn't think to count but there were more than a few, there were lots. Swallow and Housemartins seem to have had a good year, let's hope that they survive their long journey to Africa and back.

And still the rain falls. Much needed I know, and with the wet, mushrooms will be emerging in our woodlands and their fringes. These are the 'flowers' of a huge underground network of filaments. Interconnecting, feeding and being fed by the surrounding trees and plants. Together they form a Wild Wood Web. From sharing water and nutrients to alerting plants of pests approaching and triggering defences, the Wild Web senses and responds.

At dusk the clouds had lifted and all was quiet. Looking out at the last of the light in the sky from the doorstep I saw a Barn Owl come over the field. Sweeping back and forth 3 or 4 times before flitting up and over the trees and away. A moment of magic after a dreary day.

Now that Autumn is here could you consider not tidying your gardens completely this year? This will help support overwintering creatures and give wildlife the best start in Spring. Paths and grass need to be kept clear of leaves to be safe but leave them on flower beds and under hedges and far corners. Try not to cut back flowerbeds until late February.

Also there will be a family nature walk in Yeoford on the 8th October. Get in touch if you are interested in coming along.
