Editorial

April Skies!

So, the UK seasons now seem to go Winter, Spring, semi-Summer, Winter again, Summer, back to Winter and we appear to be back in the Winter again bit, it's all very odd, but hey ho, I'm sure a bit of snow won't make the roads any worse...

So, the roads, eh? Taking over as the main talking point from the weather and where it's evident that Devon roads are way, way worse than Cornwall and Somerset, the roads around Yeoford seems to have an even higher state of disrepair, which is just plain shocking. It's bad enough if you actually know where the trenches and pits actually are, but imagine being a driver or cyclist that doesn't and legitimately driving at a safe speed hitting one of them. The council are being negligent in performing their duties, we can only hope they have some sort of plan of action to sort things out once the weather stabilises. Don't hold your breath.

Anyway, March! Yeofest was once again a huge success, with about 300 punters rocking up to taste a variety of great beers. We don't know the outturn profit yet, but suffice to say it should be a decent amount, which goes directly to keeping costs low for our local user groups.

There's not an awful lot going on in April, but hey, mini eggs! You can buy them all year around you know. Anyway, moving into May and there's rumour of a Quiz up at the hall. No doubt more on that next month.

Hold on...Spring is here...

Cheers...

Parish Voluntary Wildlife Warden

A misty damp morning finds me back in higher Neopardy where I take the footpath into field of last year's maize, a cover for pheasant feeders. It's clear that this feeds more than just pheasants. Nearby crows are nesting and their prints are visible, their caw caw calls fill the air.

The ground is very slippy and it's with relief I see the broken gate that leads into a hollow trackway. Now there are dry leaves under my feet, oak, elder, hazel, and holly trees wrap around me. I'm lost in old time, walking where ancients walked as the thatched roofs of Neopardy come into view. Their cob walls are pocked with solitary bee holes for their pupae. Deep eaves provide nest sites for housemartins. A lonicera hedge explodes with chatter and a host of house sparrows fly out. Once a common site these birds are now on the red list of endangered species in the UK. They are doing well here and in Yeoford thanks to the retention of hedges. We, in the Parish, are the guardians of their future.

I cross the Yeo River and the railway and turn left at the crossroads for Gunstone. Again skylarks are singing high above. When the grass grows a little longer they can begin to nest somewhere on these permanent pastures that flank the hills.

I take the footpath from Gunstone Mill up to Posbury and follow a babbling brook lined with ancient hawthorns up and up and up....It's so slippy and the rains come in and my hood goes up, I only see my feet struggling on in the mud until I reach Chalwell.

Here chaffinches and chiffchaffs sing in thickety old wooded copses. Dog mercury and primroses line the bank. I'm too tired to climb further so I take the footpath on the left, down past St Francis House to Venny Tedburn.

A large mature woodland beckons. A great spotted woodpecker hammers to a soundtrack of dripping leaves. Golden spurge peeks through lasts years fern leaves struggling to find light in the depths of the woods. As I emerge into the light on a fields edge it is sad to see 200m of wooded stream bank have been cut back to stumps, the banks scraped. One solitary birch survives.

I know there will be life here again. Seeds will be germinating under the increased light and soon new shoots will appear from the tree stumps. But it will take time and that's not what nature has right now.

I walk on in the mist. The stream gurgles and heads past an old orchard. I hope the old woods and orchard will be a sanctuary for creatures that have lost their streamside home. Too much hedgerow and trees have been lost in the parish. Each year more and more. I wish we could stop removing valuable habitats and start adding new ones.

An old oak who has seen so much more than me welcomes me to Venny Tedburn, the end of my walk. Next time I'm heading up to Oldridge, the eastern edge of the Parish.

CREDITON HAMLETS PARISH COUNCIL

At the Annual Parish meeting on 4th March the discussion was all about the state of the roads and potholes. Councillors and members of the public present expressed their dissatisfaction at DCC's failure to maintain the local roads so that they are in a safe condition for drivers. Further, when DCC does actually make a repair it is to a very poor standard, in some cases lasting only weeks. Cllr Letch (DCC) explained that DCC uses contractors (and sub contractors) for road repairs and that only 5% of repairs are inspected by DCC! Councillors confirmed that they and Cllr Letch do report issues (as do members of the public - see comments on the Yeoford Hub).

At the March Parish Council meeting Cllr Yarnold reported that the school bus has not been stopping at the new bus shelter in Yeoford as children's bus passes first need to be altered to show the new stop. He had contacted DCC and been waiting for some time for a response.

The next full Council meeting will be on Tuesday 2nd at Crediton Boniface Centre. If you would like to read the full minutes of the March Parish Council meeting, they are on the PC website. Please contact one of your councillors or Rachel Hodder, the Parish Clerk (clerk@creditonhamlets.org.uk or 01363 85523), if there is something you would like to have discussed at the next Council meeting. Members of public are very welcome to attend any meeting and speak during the public session. Meeting details and contact information for Councillors are on the Parish Council website www.creditonhamlets.org.uk

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

REPORTING A PROBLEM WITH ROADS TO DEVON COUNTY COUNCIL

All drivers will be aware that state of repair of roads in Crediton Hamlets Parish is appalling, with more and more potholes (or are they craters?) appearing. The lack of action by Devon County Council is exceedingly frustrating but please report potholes in the hope this makes a difference.

Problems with roads can be reported on the Devon County Council website: www.devon.gov.uk/roads-and-transport/report-a-problem/

There is a link to this page under "Useful Information" on the Parish Council website www.creditonhamlets.org.uk.

If the pothole has already been reported please add yourself to the existing report so that Devon County Council is aware that another person has reported the problem.

County Councillor Newsletter—March

Now that the council tax bills have arrived there is no need for speculation but rather to wait and see how the cuts impact on services. At a recent meeting of the County's Children's Scrutiny Committee where we looked at the huge SEND (Special Educational Needs & Disability) overspend. It is predicted that by April 2005 this figure will be about £207 million! The county council has been in consultation with the Department for Education and negotiated a Safety Valve agreement. This will not be a quick fix but will take six or seven years to bring down the overspend to 0. It is a three pronged attack on the problem with £98 million coming from central government over the next six years, money from Devon County Council taken from reserves and sales of assets and savings from the overall operation of children's care. I must admit that several people on the committee were rather sceptical about this final part of the solution.

Still on the theme of children I was delighted to attend a young carers webinar. I was staggered to learn that there are about 1 million children (under 17 years old) who have a variety of caring duties. We were treated to a presentation by six young carers to describe their challenges, the impact of caring on their own lives and possible solutions. There was a young carers action day earlier in the month. I would like people to look at the website www.carers/youngcarerscovenant, which you can sign. I'm going to press for this at district and county level. We are repeatedly told as councillors that we are corporate parents. I am hoping to turn this into something more concrete rather than just a few words.

Stagecoach and the county council have been in negotiations with central government for funding to help with zero carbon objectives. I'm pleased to say that Stagecoach has received £5.3 million which will enable them to introduce electric buses in North Devon, Torridge and Exeter.

Yesterday I attended a briefing from the two senior highways officers. The first thing they admitted is that they are overwhelmed by the number of defects and condition of our major roads. In the previous financial year they had fixed 40,000 safety defects (mostly potholes of course) but already this year which has a month to go the figure had jumped to 53,000. They have 20 gangs out repairing the safety defects who sometimes work at weekends in order to make an impact on the figures. The one thing they reiterated is that everybody from the senior highways officers down to any member of the public has the same power to report a safety defect. The computer system does not differentiate between highways officers, councillors and members of the public. There is also a section on the website for reporting gullies. You can check on each individual gully to see when it was last emptied. Guidelines are that those on the major roads are looked at monthly, other busy roads such as the A377 once a year, country roads again once a year and town roads once every three years. It is always helpful to go online to get an exact number of the gully so that the officers can easily go to the correct location.

I hope you all have a happy Easter and not too many April fool tricks played on you!

PLEASE READ: AIR AMBULANCE

An appeal to all our villagers

If you, your children or anyone you know plays in the recreation ground please always check with them that they have returned the goals to the edge of the field.

This is because the Air Ambulance CANNOT LAND if the goals are in the middle of the field.

If you pass the recreation ground or see anybody playing with the goals in the centre, could you please remind them (politely) that they should be returned to the edge after use, or move them back if you find them abandoned like this.

Thank you all for your cooperation.

YEOFEST 2024

SATURDAY 16TH MARCH

Despite train cancellations and a competing event with the reopening of the Drewe Arms, Yeofest still pulled in a substantial crowd. The first train brought in a queue of around 80 real ale fans that stretched along Yeo View, with reports of some punters running to the hall to get in early.

As ever we had a selection of ales for everyone, stouts, milds, golden ales and bitters and we are delighted to report that local beer, Piston Bitter from the Beer Engine, won best beer at the festival for the first time. So do get yourselves down to the Beer Engine and give it a try if you missed out on Saturday!

One of the highlights of the day was the music organised by Clifford and Jo, a group of strummers followed by Crediton Street Band who entertained us with trumpets and drums and added to the jovial atmosphere.

Around 300 people joined us during the day, alongside at least 20 volunteers who helped with the event. To all those who sat on the door, made or served food, worked behind the bar, helped us set up (with a special thanks to those who helped us clean up the next day), organised/played music, a massive thanks. We couldn't do this without you.

Cont.

Finally a huge thank you to our sponsors and supporters: Ubicom, The Beer Engine, Newton St Cyres, McCormack Training, Howdens, Crankhouse Coffee, The Duck at Yeoford, A H Gilbert & Son, Crediton Milling Company, RJ Brooks & Son, G P Pennington Plumbing & Renewables, The New Inn, Coleford, Hawkrigde Farmhouse Dairy Produce, Rod Davis, SW Galvanising, Grape & Grain Wine Merchants, Pete Davis, Devon Tree Services, Utopian Brewing, Christine Francis, The Tom Cobley Tavern, Spreyton, Simpkins Edwards, Pool n Spa and Quickes Cheese.

Road from Elston Meadow to Yeoford Village Cross

Monday 5th February 2024

Devon Highways will be carrying out drainage investigation works on the road from Elston Meadow to Yeoford Village Cross between Monday 8th – Friday 12th April 2024; the road will be closed during our working hours which will be 08.30 – 15.30. These works need to be done in advance of future resurfacing works.

Please see the road closure and works area highlighted in red on the map below, there will be a signed diversion route which is shown on the map in blue. Drivers with local knowledge will be able to use alternative side roads but these will not be publicly advertised for safety.

We apologise in advance for any inconvenience caused, including noise. We will endeavour to keep all disruption to a minimum. Should you have any questions please contact us and we will do our best to try to help.
